Introduction and Contribution to Wikipedia.

a) Description about Wikipedia and its features:

Description: Wikipedia is a free, open content online encyclopedia created through the collaborative effort of a community of users known as Wikipedians. Anyone registered on the site can create an article for publication; registration is not required to edit articles. The site's name comes from wiki, a server program that enables anyone to edit Web site content through their Web browser.

However, as the wiki site became established it soon grew beyond the scope of the earlier project. As of January 2015, the website provided well over five million articles in English and more than that number in all other languages combined. At that same time, Alexa ranked Wikipedia as the seventh-most popular site on the Internet. Wikipedia was the only non-commercial site of the top ten.

. In August 2007, Virgil Griffiths created a site, WikiScanner, where users could track the sources of edits to Wikipedia entries. Griffiths reported that self-serving edits typically involved whitewashing or removal of criticism of a person or organization or, conversely, insertion of negative comments into the entry about a competitor. Wikipedia depends upon the vigilance of editors to find and reverse such changes to content.

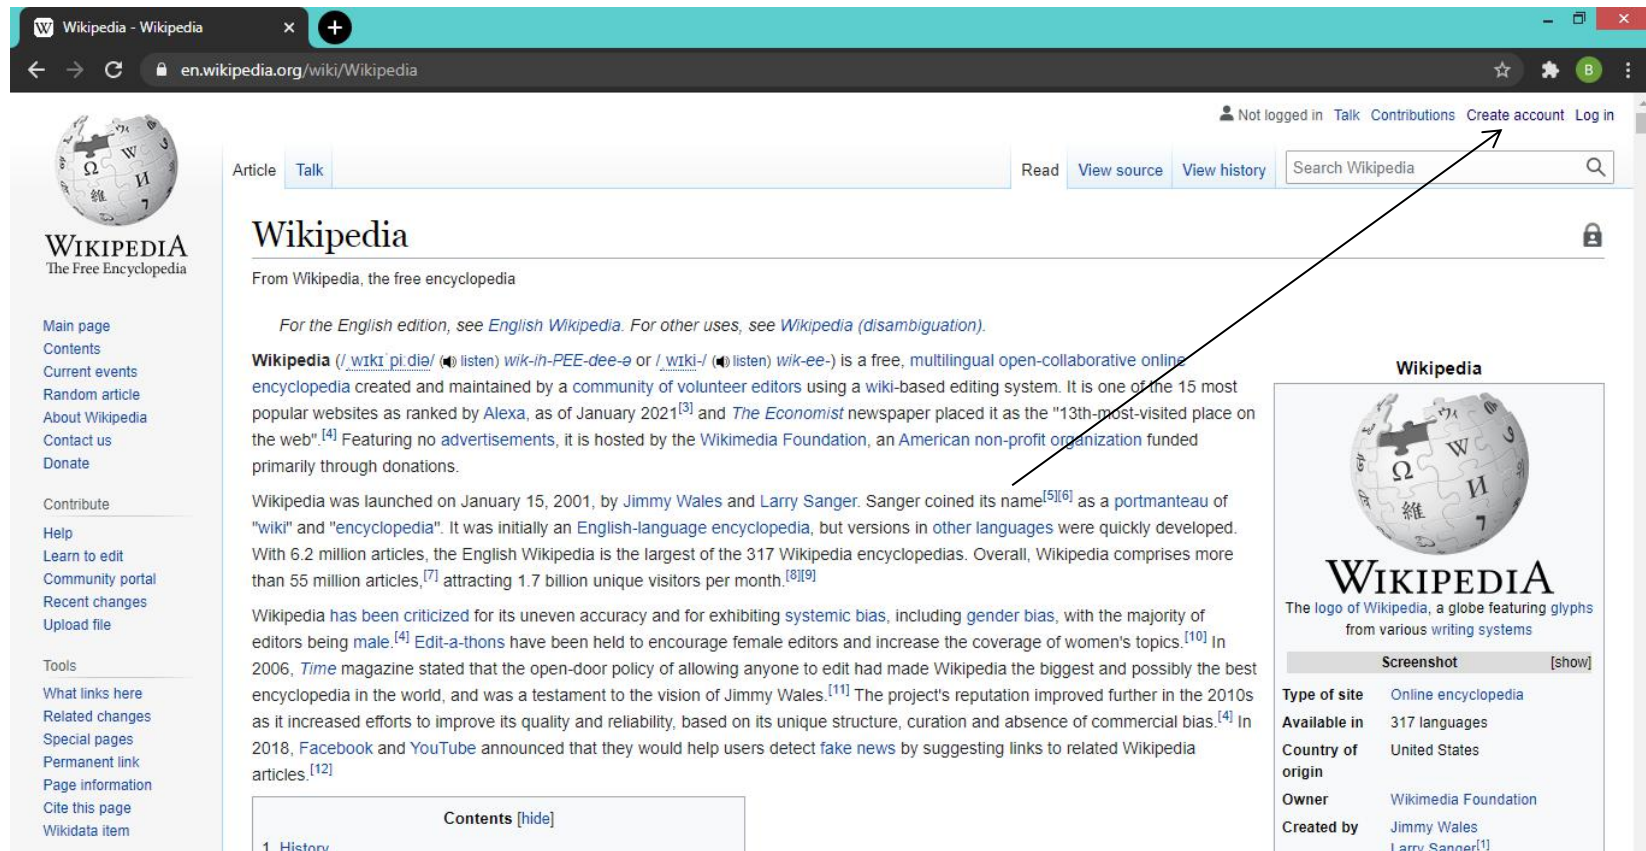

Features: 1. Creation of page, you can set your title and can add your own texts, no need of coding just type and format text like an email, when you done click on submit and its ready to view for everyone.

2. You can edit a public page if you find an outdated data , you can open editing screen and edit and then click on submit and changes are made.

3. Links can be created between pages you can simply add brackets around another Wiki page's title (e.g. [[Example Page Title]]) to automatically link to that page.

b) Creating account on Wikipedia:

Step 1: Click on the “Create account” on the upper right corner.

The screenshot shows the Wikipedia homepage in a web browser. The browser's address bar displays 'en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia'. In the top right corner, there is a navigation bar with the text 'Not logged in' followed by links for 'Talk', 'Contributions', 'Create account', and 'Log in'. A black arrow points from the 'Create account' link towards the top right corner of the page. The main content area features the Wikipedia logo (a globe made of puzzle pieces) and the text 'WIKIPEDIA The Free Encyclopedia'. Below this, there is a sidebar with various links such as 'Main page', 'Contents', 'Current events', 'Random article', 'About Wikipedia', 'Contact us', 'Donate', 'Contribute', 'Help', 'Learn to edit', 'Community portal', 'Recent changes', 'Upload file', 'Tools', 'What links here', 'Related changes', 'Special pages', 'Permanent link', 'Page information', 'Cite this page', and 'Wikidata item'. The central article area is titled 'Wikipedia' and includes a sub-header 'From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia'. The article text describes Wikipedia as a free, multilingual open-collaborative online encyclopedia created and maintained by a community of volunteer editors. It mentions that Wikipedia was launched on January 15, 2001, by Jimmy Wales and Larry Sanger, and that it is the largest of the 317 Wikipedia encyclopedias. The article also notes that Wikipedia has been criticized for its uneven accuracy and for exhibiting systemic bias, including gender bias. On the right side of the page, there is a 'Screenshot' section with a table of information about Wikipedia.
